Tomato Congress back in Rotterdam

Global Tomato Congress is set to return as a physical event next March, with expert speakers providing insights into all areas of the tomato business

Global Tomato Congress, the leading event for the fresh tomato business, is set to make its physical return to Rotterdam on 22 March 2022 for a full day of in-person learning and networking.

Following last year's exclusively online edition on account of the Covid-19 pandemic, Global Tomato Congress is ready to welcome delegates back to the Netherlands to explore the latest innovations in tomatoes, presenting a whole range of fresh ideas to inspire everyone in the category.

Expert speakers will offer insights in all areas of the business, from new product development to marketing strategies, from production to post-harvest handling, and from brand-new technologies to emerging consumer trends.
