

Last chance for FPJ Live early bird

Early bird-rate closes on Monday 19 August and offers 20 per cent off the standard ticket price to industry-leading event

The early-bird window is closing on Monday 19 August for FPJ Live 2019 tickets, offering a 20 per cent reduction on the standard price.

FPJ Live takes place at the Ricoh Arena in Coventry on 8 October, and tickets also include entry to the UK Fruit & Vegetable Awards Social on the evening of 7 October at the same venue. This highly anticipated fresh produce event combines face-to-face networking with chat, insight and fun.

The theme of this year's conference is A Healthy Future, and will discuss everything from the latest on Brexit to examples of innovative companies, new retail and wholesale developments, creative marketing and much more. A new multi-stage format offers a multitude of content for delegates, alongside ample networking opportunities to catch up with industry friends and colleagues.

Speakers at this year's event include NFU president Minette Batters, AHDB Horticulture chair Hayley

Campbell-Gibbons, IPL boss Mike Snell, Riverford founder Guy Singh-Watson, chef and author Melissa Hemsley, and many more.

The Debate Stage will also look at topics such as adding nutrition to fresh produce and the challenges of recruiting more young people into the industry.

See www.fpjlive.com for full programme information and to book your place.

