The week in pictures 15.11.13

Fresh produce week in pictures includes a radio-tagged weevil, Amanda Holden and the first vessel at London Gateway

A radio-tagged weevil

It's been quite a week for the fresh produce trade, with the scientific community in overdrive, the new billion-pound London port receiving its first vessel and TV's Amanda Holden choosing a greengrocer as the venue for the launch of her new book.

It's all been immortalised in pictures.
