

By Carl Collen

Thursday 22nd November 2018, 9:42 GMT

Zespri tops Deloitte list

Kiwifruit marketer wins the Company of the Year Award at Deloitte's Top 200 ceremony

Zespri has come out on top as Company of the Year at this year's Deloitte Top 200 Awards in Auckland, an event recognising business excellence in New Zealand.

The judges recognised the kiwifruit giant's innovation and long-term strategy success, pointing to its profitability and shareholder returns.

The awards marked a double success for the company, with Peter McBride – who will retire from his role in February – named as Chairperson of the Year.

"Such a great honour to win Company of the Year at the #DeloitteTop200 awards last night and also to have our Chairman, Peter McBride recognised for his outstanding leadership by being awarded Chairman of the Year — thank you to all our supporters," Zespri tweeted.